

TV8 DICK GODDARD'S
CHICKEN FLYING
CONTEST

(Hens and Roosters Compete)

THURSDAY AT 12:00 NOON!

Last Year's Grand Champion was "TENDER"
Owned by Zak Casto & Clair O'Donnell-McCarthy
Whose Entry Flew 13 Feet 10 Inch

The contest is open to any adult or child who enters a hen or rooster at the small grandstand at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday. The first flight is scheduled for 12:00 noon. Prizes will be awarded for both hen and rooster winners. The winning hen and winning rooster will compete for an additional prize. Chickens must be brought to the fairgrounds in a fresh coop made of either wire or slats and coops must be identified as to ownership. Flights will be made from a pole high perch and distance measured from starting point to landing. Farthest distance declared the winner, Grand Champion winner, $50.00. First place is a trophy and $25.00 cash for winning hen and rooster. Second and third places will be $15.00 and $10.00 respectively.

Limited to known chicken breeds or mixes. Contact Todd Swann, director in charge, if in question as to breed.

Decisions of judges are final.

In Charge: Bob Rogish